

Eagles and ashes

My play is about a murder, in the Abigail family. There are four main characters Brooklyn Jane McAllister, Eliza Marie Abigail, her cousin River James and their maid Harper Everleigh Henrison. The lady and lord Abigail have hosted a dinner party, congratulating their nephew River for getting into a boarding school in London. Just as lord Abigail is about to make a toast the lights go out everything is fine until the maid Harper opens the box to turn on the light switch when suddenly there is a gunshot that hits lady Abigail then the lights turn on but no one in the room has a gun on them, there are ashes all around the table and next to lady Abigail's dead body is a necklace with an eagle on it. Suddenly the room is filled with panic.

The old nanny Mary screams that the children and the servants in the other room now. Suddenly they were boxed off in a library filled with dusty old books and cobwebs then without much further notice they were sent to their rooms the old nanny told Harper to stay and look after them or maybe just keep them quiet she quickly handed a box of toffees to her and an old card game she then said bed at two o'clock which really meant bed in twenty minutes you see old nanny Mary was 84 years old and couldn't see anything but she did have a very alarming voice and would still put lord Abigail to tears.

But Harper wasn't like that she could see Eliza crying so she gave her the box of toffees but she refused River was so confused that he wouldn't speak and Brooklyn the old nanny's granddaughter was trying to wedge open the door to hear what was going on five minutes later they have four clues their aim is to discover who the murderer is while giving the audience an unforgettable night.

Brooklyn Jane McAllister is old nanny Mary's granddaughter. She is also Eliza's best friend. She has long blond straight hair and blue eyes. She is wearing a pink dress with a pearl necklace her attitude is bubbly and curious.

Eliza Marie Abigail heir to lord and lady Abigail. She has fiery red long hair which is curly and deep blue eyes she is wearing a yellow dress with daisies around the collar. Her attitude is scared and timid.

River James who was Eliza's cousin has short brown hair and brown eyes. He is wearing a navy suit and his attitude is fierce and adventurous.

Harper Everleigh Henderson is a maid who works for old nanny Mary. She has thick blond curls and deep blue eyes. She is wearing an old white apron and a blue dress. Her attitude is kind and peaceful.

Eagles and ashes first five lines

Brooklyn: hello it's so good to see you again river i tried to make you your favourite strawberry pie but old nanny mary got the jars mixed up so now it's pickle pie i warn you do not eat it it smells like a thousand dead animals.

River: thanks for the warning last time i ate her pasta she got it mixed up s instead of cheese i had anchovies i was sick with food poisoning for two days great to see you bye the way

Old nanny Mary : where is harper i need her to make 35 chocolate salmon pieces .

Harper: eww chocolate salmon pieces have you lost your mind can't we just make salmon puffs instead ohh yeah that's she can only hear me if im cooking im coming nanny mary .

Eliza : common river I need to show you where you will be staying in brooklyn can you take his bag thanks now lets go before old nanny mary realises i stole mints from her stash.

What would it mean if I could have my play performed on stage ?

It would mean the world to me. I have done acting classes out of school for years and have seen so many plays always wondering if one day it would be my play that I would one day be watching . I would also really enjoy watching other people watch it and have fun with the old weird characters such as nanny mary which would be a great character to play . It would also be amazing to teach people my script and to have it fully written so I can show its true glory not just five lines .
