

History

What trips are there in the Sixth Form?

The main visit is the two yearly trip to Russia which most sixth form historians have gone on in past years.

Will missing out the Cold War Paper at GCSE matter?

No A level does not assume knowledge, as long as you have the requisite skills you should be fine.

Do you need to have done History GCSE to study History A Level?

It is certainly an advantage, however in previous years we have had pupils who have not studied History. We would expect them to have gained a grade 7 in a humanity subject to demonstrate skills of essay writing.

What were the results like in previous years?

Over the past few years the percentage of A*-B has ranged between 60-70 %. We changes specification last year so it is difficult to make direct comparisons with expectations for this year.
